

Madison

Discover the Unexpected

Located on SD Highway 34, Madison is nestled between Lake Herman and Lake Madison. Less than an hour from the hustle & bustle of Sioux Falls, Madison offers a slower pace, a friendly welcome and an uncluttered scenery. We have two golf courses, a new aquatic center, two state park & recreation areas, a 4.2 mile recreational trail, and water sports on five area lakes. Prairie Village, two miles west of town, hosts the Motongator Joe's Country Music Festival & the Northern Bull Riding Tour each June, as well as the Annual Steam Threshing Jamboree each August. Hunting & snowmobiling are available in season.

Rich, rolling farmland around Madison means plenty of natural beauty. The bounty of our wildlife is fully realized in the amazing work of Madison's hometown artist, John C. Green, whose studio is is the proud home of Dakota State University, leading the way in biometric identification systems; and the Madison Technology Center, a state of the art campus built specifically to house high tech businesses. You'll find a wide variety of accommodations on our mainstreet. Madison including national chain motels, B&B's with local charm, and rustic resort cabins. Throw in great dining options and boutique shopping and you'll see that Madison has everything you want.

Inset: The kids will have a blast at Madison's new Aquatic Center.

It's all about a slower pace. Step out of the rat-race for awhile and dip your toes in the lake, there's plenty of space.

Inset: Tee off on two scenic golf courses.
